

COVENANT BAY BIBLE CAMP RENTAL AGREEMENT

CBBC Mission Statement

Covenant Bay Bible exists to promote a growing relationship with Jesus Christ by promoting opportunities for Worship, Fellowship and instruction in Discipleship.

Rental Purpose

During times that Covenant Bay Bible Camp (CBBC) is not operating its own camping program CBBC is willing to rent out the camp facility in order to provide a healthy and wholesome outdoor atmosphere where all attending can enjoy nature, learn new skills and increase their knowledge of the basics of life. All groups willing to adhere to the following regulations are welcome at CBBC.

Regulations

While on the grounds, everyone is to abstain from the following:

1. All alcoholic beverages
2. Smoking in any building and any bush area
3. All behaviour that is offensive to the Mission Statement or the Rental Purpose
4. Littering or disfiguring the site in any manner
5. Cutting, carving or otherwise mutilating trees
6. The keeping of any pets
7. The use of skateboards, roller skates and roller blades.

Agreement

We the undersigned agree to:

1. Abide by the purpose and regulations set out above.
2. Submit a nonrefundable deposit at the time of confirmation of booking. This will be 20% of the minimum rental fee and will be deducted from the rent.
3. Submit the remaining balance of all rental fees at the conclusion of the rental.
4. Pay for any damage to the property or equipment caused by anyone connected to the rental group as a result of misuse. These charges will be billed to the renter in addition to the rental fees.
5. Submit a certificate of insurance confirming the renter carries a minimum of one million dollars general liability insurance and one hundred thousand dollars tenants legal liability insurance naming Covenant Bay Bible Camp Society as an additional name insured for the entire time of rental.
6. Return the camp to the condition it was in upon arrival. (This included cleaning and putting away items used during the renter's stay)
